Pew Sheet – 18th October

Today we celebrate St Luke; Luke was a dear friend of the apostle Paul, and is mentioned by him as ‘the much-loved physician’. Luke is credited with writing the Gospel that bears his name, and the Acts of the Apostles, which is clearly a companion volume to that Gospel. In these writings, Luke makes it clear that the good news of God’s saving love is for all, regardless of gender, social position or nationality. Each Gospel writer has an animal symbol. In this picture we see the bull for St Luke – checking his grammar maybe?

PLEASE REMEMBER IN PRAYER

IN THE WORLD:

- For the people of Nagorno-Karabakh, and all those affected by the conflict between Azerbaijan and Armenia.
- For all those whose lives are dedicated to the healing of others, especially at this time. Those on the front line of the battle against Covid-19.
- For all evangelists, preaching the good news of Our Lord Jesus Christ, often in indifferent or hostile environments.

IN THE COMMUNITY AND SOCIETY:

- The NHS, and all those working in a variety of medical and complementary disciplines, bringing healing of mind, body or spirit.
- Those involved in the Brexit trade negotiations, and all those preparing to trade in a post-Brexit economy.

THE SICK:

Richard Hanmer; Kathy Cheesmond; Bill Read; Jenny Wilkins.

THE DEPARTED:

Gerald Turpin; Dennis France; Liza Grenfell

Rest eternal grant to them, O Lord; and let light perpetual shine upon them.

Please let Anna know if you would like anyone included in the prayers – sorensenanna8@gmail.com

THE COLLECT FOR ST LUKE:

Almighty God, you called Luke the physician, whose praise is in the gospel, to be an evangelist and physician of the soul:
by the grace of the Spirit and through the wholesome medicine of the gospel, give your Church the same love and power to heal;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

ANNA AT HOME – CORRECTION!

Apologies – major blunder. ‘At home’ will be each Wednesday

As life gets busy again, and I am out and about more, I realise that it is not always easy for people to catch me. So, I am going to be ‘at home’ each Wednesday, between 10.30 and 12.00, so that you can ring up or call by, and find me ‘at home’. The coffee pot will be on.

(Occasionally I may need to be elsewhere, so check the Pew Sheet before you set out).

SAINTS AND SOULS – THE SEASON OF REMEMBRANCE

SUNDAY 1ST NOVEMBER

CELEBRATION OF ST ANDREW & ALL SAINTS:

10.00 at Boothby Pagnell.

During this service we will be ‘swearing in’ the Churchwardens for 2020-2021, and celebrating their valuable role within our communities.

MONDAY 2ND NOVEMBER – ALL SOULS:

On 2nd November each year, the church remembers all those who have gone ahead of us into the light and joy of heaven. In other words, all their souls. There will be a special service, for all the parishes, on Monday 2nd November, at 7 pm, at Ingoldsby Church. Everyone is welcome to attend, and we will remember our loved ones by name, and through the lighting of candles. You can add your loved one’s name to the list in advance, by dropping a note into the Rectory, 30 High Street, Ropsley, or via email to sorensenanna8@gmail.com; or you can do so before the service, when you arrive at church.

In this extraordinary year we will also remember all those who have died as a result of Covid-19.

LIGHT A CANDLE AT ALL SOULS – 2nd Nov

If you are not able to attend the service at Ingoldsby on All Souls, you might like to light a candle at home and place it in your window on All Souls evening, to remember those you have lost, and show solidarity with those who are bereaved across the nation and the world.

SUNDAY 8TH NOVEMBER – REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

ROPSLEY

10.30 Ropsley Green – short Service of Remembrance

11.00 Ropsley War Memorial -
Act of Remembrance and Laying of Wreaths.

LENTON

10.45 Service of Remembrance, including the Act of Remembrance from the Cenotaph

OLD SOMERBY

18.00 Holy Communion & Act of Remembrance
